

Knowledge & Learning Commons Housewarming

Join us for an interactive exploration of our 2019 catalogue

When?

Thursday, 31 January 2019
12 - 2 p.m.

Where?

UN Library Geneva
Palais des Nations, B Building,
1st Floor

Programme:

This Housewarming event offers a practical insight into the Knowledge & Learning Commons Catalogue for 2019, offering a variety of interactive activities to help understand the range of events and projects available to UN Staff, Diplomats and Interns at the Commons this year. These activities represent some of the different streams of content on offer in 2019, including:

- Conflict Management workshops,
- Virtual Reality workshops,
- Language Learning activities,
- "SDG Anonymous" Innovation Sessions.

The event will include an introduction by the UN Geneva Director-General Michael Møller at 12:10 p.m.
Please join us for an exciting and interactive event, to kick off a new year of Commons projects and collaborations!

The Knowledge & Learning Commons is an initiative of the UN Library Geneva and the UN Geneva Centre for Learning and Multilingualism, Human Resources Management Service, offering opportunities and spaces for learning and collaboration. This Housewarming is in collaboration with HRMS, DCM, UNMAS, Young UN and other partners.
